BIG OOOPS!

For those of you who read our email a month ago we tried to save some time and effort by using an old template. Then we forgot to delete all our old text. So the result was our announcement that we were home in the US after 5 1/2 years. Ooops! That was in 2019. Flashback. Obviously, that is not true. We were here last year dropping off Eli at college and working in Knoxville on a barn. Lesson learned, Thanks Mom for catching the mistake. We will try to do better in the future. But anyways here is a more accurate depiction of life and plans.

Coming Soon to a City Near You

We're back. Many of you may ask, "Why so soon?" Well, we know last year we didn't get to connect with many of our supporting churches. Preparing Eli for school and building a barn left little time for visits. This summer there were wedding plans for Naleh and hopefully an immigration hearing for Israel and we wanted to make sure and connect with as many supporters as we could. So here we are again and hoping see you all this summer.

Don't See Your Church on the List?

If you don't see your church on our list of places to visit? It's not too late. We have a couple of free Sunday's and some time mid week for small group or evening visits. We would love to hear from you. Reach out to us via email or messenger. oipng.director@gmail.com or apmafodcentre@gmail.com

Indiana Landing

After a late night arrival in Indianapolis on Friday April 22nd we drove to Martinsville, IN. Karie's hometown. Jet lag is always rough but Israel's 2-5AM antics got old very quickly. On the 24th we were able to attend Liberty Christian Church and reconnect with old friends and family. Judah got the chance to try his hand at blacksmithing which has been an interest of his for a while and he was also able to pick up a good used guitar with some cash he had saved up from some odd jobs and birthdays. In no time at all we were off on our first road trip to Alvina, Missouri. This stop was to visit friends and break the journey on our way toward Stillwater, OK for our next speaking engagement.

Oklahoma Happenings

In Oklahoma we were able to squeeze in visits with three churches between meetings and meals with friends. We got to see some beautiful country side along the way and experience one of those classic Oklahoma spring squalls complete with scary hail and wind, plus the rain and warnings for tornados that thankfully never appeared.

Texas Stop Over

Traveling south from Oklahoma we drove down to Lubbock, TX to catch up with Naleh and her fiancée Ryan. We didn't have as much time as we would have liked but both were happy and well and busy with work and school and life. Lots of planning and dreaming going on. It is an exciting time in life and we were happy to share a few days with them.

Tennessee Home

On the road again we headed northeast toward Cookeville, TN and our next speaking engagement.

After an overnight there it was back on home to Knoxville, TN to see Eli again and get back to our barn in the hills. We have lots of churches to visit in the Knoxville area over the next several weeks. We are so thankful for the barn, a nice dry place to stay as we reconnect with churches, family and friends.

Back in Tennessee and we are spending time with Eli and working to clean up around the barn. Visiting churches and spending time with friends and family for the next three weeks.

As we left Texas on our long drive to First Christian Church in Cookeville TN we saw one of the most beautiful sunsets. So thankful for chance to spend the end of spring in the USA watching the dog woods and red buds come into bloom and enjoying the first gems of the strawberry harvest.
